

ANNOUNCEMENT OF AWARDS

The 77th Georgia Science & Engineering Fair took place April 3-5, 2025 in Athens, Georgia. The award winners listed in this document were selected by the GSEF Judging Team and representatives of sponsoring organizations. Congratulations to these winners, and to each and every exhibitor who advanced to GSEF from a Regional Fair. You have done excellent work and should be very proud!

Special thanks goes to the GSEF Judging Team and Award Sponsors. GSEF would not be possible without you.

SPECIAL AWARDS are listed on pages 2-13.
GRAND AWARDS are listed on pages 14-23.
HONORS RIBBONS are listed on pages 24-42.

GSEF is a program of the Office of Academic Special Programs at the University of Georgia Center for Continuing Education & Hotel, a unit of the Office of Public Service & Outreach.

GSEF is an official affiliate of the Regeneron International Science & Engineering Fair.

SPECIAL AWARDS

American Institute of Aeronautics & Astronautics

With nearly 30,000 individual members from 91 countries, and 95 corporate members, AIAA is the world's largest technical society dedicated to the global aerospace profession. Created in 1963 by the merger of the two great aerospace societies of the day, the American Rocket Society (founded in 1930 as the American Interplanetary Society), and the Institute of the Aerospace Sciences (established in 1933 as the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences), AIAA carries forth a proud tradition of more than 80 years of aerospace leadership.

Atlanta Geological Society Nils Thompson Memorial Award for K-12 Geoscience Research

The Atlanta Geological Society (AGS) is a professional society established in 1991 with individuals and corporate members interested in geosciences. AGS provides access to information and educational opportunities that are essential to the professional growth of earth scientists at all levels of expertise and from all sectors: academic, government, business, and industry. The Nils Thompson Memorial Fund is in recognition of Nils Thompson, our beloved President, who passed away February 9, 2022 after being afflicted by Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease (CJD), a degenerative brain disorder that leads to dementia and, ultimately, death. Nil was a committed advocate for stimulating interest in our science in everyone and encouraging young students to pursue their scientific interests. In Nil's memory, we are using a portion of this fund to encourage young researchers to explore the many areas of the geological sciences from environmental hydrogeology to processes affecting worlds beyond our own.

Georgia Aquarium Conservation Award

Georgia Aquarium is a nonprofit committed to inspiring awareness and preservation of our oceans and aquatic animals worldwide. By educating guests and sparking the interest of school groups, Georgia Aquarium inspires conservation. The Sponsored Education Admission (SEA) program sponsors Aquarium admission from Title I schools and nonprofits in Georgia. Aquarium staff have also built partnerships with local schools that allow students to collaborate with Georgia Aquarium staff using project-based learning. These partnerships include Lovett School students getting hands-on experience with animal behavior training, and Ray Davis Middle School students receiving science fair mentoring. Georgia Aquarium also has an internship program for students 18 years or older which provides pre-professional, experiential learning opportunities for individuals working towards our mission. Sponsoring school groups, collaborating with students' projects and providing internships allows Georgia Aquarium to dedicate time to spreading knowledge of the ocean and aquatic world to the up and coming generation.

Naval Science Award

The Naval Science Awards Program is a U.S. Navy and Marine Corps program that encourages our nation's students to develop and retain an interest in science and engineering. NSAP recognizes the accomplishments of eligible students at regional and state science and engineering fairs and the International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF) in producing and presenting quality science and engineering projects. The Office of Naval Research (ONR) sponsors NSAP for the U. S. Navy and Marine Corps. ONR coordinates, executes, and promotes science and technology programs of the Naval services through universities, government laboratories, and nonprofit and for-profit organizations. Fostering an academic interest in Naval-relevant science and engineering from high school through post-doctoral levels is of great importance to ONR.

HONORS RIBBONS - JUNIOR DIVISION

Honors ribbons indicate a student's relative position in the overall fair. They do not take into consideration either project category or student's grade, although Junior and Senior divisions are calculated separately. First Honors go to projects with total scores ranking approximately at or above the 90th percentile based on overall scores, regardless of category. Second Honors go to the 80th to 90th percentiles. Third Honors go to the 70th to 80th percentiles. Fourth Honors go to the 60th to 70th percentiles.

All students, regardless of awards, are commended on their excellent research and advancing this far in the competition. All exhibitors are awarded a ribbon and certificate honoring their hard work and participation in the statewide Georgia Science & Engineering Fair.

HONORS RIBBONS - JUNIOR DIVISION

Honors ribbons indicate a student's relative position in the overall fair. They do not take into consideration either project category or student's grade, although Junior and Senior divisions are calculated separately. First Honors go to projects with total scores ranking approximately at or above the 90th percentile based on overall scores, regardless of category. Second Honors go to the 80th to 90th percentiles. Third Honors go to the 70th to 80th percentiles. Fourth Honors go to the 60th to 70th percentiles.

All students, regardless of awards, are commended on their excellent research and advancing this far in the competition. All exhibitors are awarded a ribbon and certificate honoring their hard work and participation in the statewide Georgia Science & Engineering Fair.

HONORS RIBBONS - SENIOR DIVISION

Honors ribbons indicate a student's relative position in the overall fair. They do not take into consideration either project category or student's grade, although Junior and Senior divisions are calculated separately. First Honors go to projects with total scores ranking approximately at or above the 90th percentile based on overall scores, regardless of category. Second Honors go to the 80th to 90th percentiles. Third Honors go to the 70th to 80th percentiles. Fourth Honors go to the 60th to 70th percentiles.

All students, regardless of awards, are commended on their excellent research and advancing this far in the competition. All exhibitors are awarded a ribbon and certificate honoring their hard work and participation in the statewide Georgia Science & Engineering Fair.
